Sep 13, 2017

NIGERIA: -

The Nation reports that the Federal Executive Council meeting chaired by President Muhammadu Buhari on Wednesday directed the Ministry of Finance to immediately recover moneys not remitted to government coffers by some agencies.

The Minister of Finance, Kemi Adeosun briefed State House correspondents at the end of the FEC meeting.

She said that some of the government agencies of have been uncovered to be diverting their revenues.

JAMB, which she said has been remitting N3 million annually, has remitted N5 billion for this year alone and has disclosed that it still has N3 billion more to remit to government purse this year.

According to her, NIMASA is among other agencies, which are high offenders.
